

ETV Endowment and
A Chef's Life Tour
March 22-24, 2017

Join Chef Vivian Howard, her husband Ben Knight and other ETV Endowment members on an unforgettable trip to Kinston, NC, as we explore the world of A Chef's Life. Located in eastern North Carolina, Kinston is the home of Vivian and Ben's award-winning restaurant, Chef and the Farmer, and their sister restaurant, the Boiler Room Oyster Bar. Not surprisingly, the revitalization of this rural part of North Carolina has been attributed to Vivian and Ben's return to the area.

Our travelers will be treated to a spectacular private dinner at the famous Chef and the Farmer in their newly renovated event space. Our tour will also include a private lunch at the Boiler Room Oyster Bar, a tour of Mother Earth Brewery, a reading by Vivian Howard from her cookbook, Deep Run Roots, biscuit making with Vivian and the one and only Miss Lillie Hardy, and a very special evening at The Bentley Bed and Breakfast. At The Bentley, we will be treated to a night of moonshine, music and eastern North Carolina fish stew. The perfect ending to a perfect day!

The final day will include a tour of the CSS Neuse Civil War Interpretive Center and Replica and the Kinston Krawl tour of downtown Kinston. Our tour concludes with a private lunch and exclusive first taste from Vivian's new bakery menu, slated to open in the summer of 2017.

The price per person of this three-day tour is $999 for a single room and $889 for a double room. This price includes:

- A $250 tax-deductible contribution to the ETV Endowment
- First-year membership in Friends of A Chef's Life, which means your name will be printed on the A Chef's Life series website as a series supporter
